

Consumer Credit - Loan Agreement – Secured – Land and Personal Property

This loan agreement has been prepared by the lender on the Statement Date shown on the Initial Disclosure Statement. This loan agreement includes the sections headed “Initial Disclosure”, “Guarantee” (if applicable) and incorporates the document headed “Terms and Conditions (v2102)” and (if not included in the general terms) the Schedule of Standard Fees and Charges – Consumer Credit. Whenever we refer to “this agreement” we mean all of these documents together.

If the lender agrees to make further advances in the future, any change disclosure statement given to you by the lender that refers to this agreement and any other documents referred to in that change disclosure statement will also be included in this agreement.

Parties to this agreement:

The Lender AVANTI FINANCE LIMITED (also referred to as ‘the creditor’ or ‘we’ or ‘us’)

The Borrower(s)
(also referred to as
‘you’)

The Guarantor(s)
(also referred to as
‘you’)

IMPORTANT PLEASE READ THIS FIRST

You are protected by responsible lending laws. Because of these protections, the recommendations given to you by us, the lender, about this loan are not regulated financial advice. This means that duties and requirements imposed on people who give financial advice do not apply to these recommendations. This includes a duty to comply with a code of conduct and a requirement to be licensed.

The borrower’s and guarantor’s agreements and acknowledgements:

By signing the section headed Initial Disclosure, you make the following promises and acknowledgements to the lender.

1. To repay: You will repay the total advances at the time and in the manner set out in the Initial Disclosure – and if the lender agrees to make any further advance, you will repay the further advances at the time and in the manner set out in any change disclosure statement.
2. To comply with the terms: You will comply with all the terms and conditions that are set out in this agreement and all terms and conditions that are implied by law.
3. You understand what you are signing: You have read and understood this agreement, including your right to cancel, and you are signing relying on your own judgement and after you have received a copy of this agreement and the Terms and Conditions.
4. Each borrower and guarantor is liable for the full amount: If there is more than one borrower and/or guarantor each of you is liable to repay the lender the full amount owing. This means that each of you may be required by the lender to pay the entire amount owed. This is referred to as joint and several liability.
5. If you are in default: Any money we receive from your payments, may be applied by us to any payments or amounts that are due. This means that payments may be applied to default fees or interest owing and may not reduce the principal balance of the loan.
6. Land: If we are taking or have taken a mortgage over the land to secure your obligations under this loan, you grant us a mortgage over that land. The mortgaged property will be specified in the disclosure statement under the heading “What could happen if you fail to meet your commitments”. We may lodge a caveat against that land to give notice of our interest under the agreement to mortgage. We may also withdraw our caveat and register a mortgage over that land using the power of attorney that you give us in this agreement.

You appoint agent for service: You appoint each other borrower or guarantor to be your agent for service for the purposes of section 355 of the Property Law Act 2007 and for the service of notices under this agreement. If we are unable to give notice to a borrower or a guarantor then we may use this clause to give notice or serve notice on the available other borrower or guarantor.

Personal property: If we take a security interest in your personal property (for example but not by way of limitation, your car) to secure your obligation under this loan, by this agreement, you grant us a security interest in that property. The security interest will be specified in the disclosure statement under the heading “What could happen if you fail to meet your commitments”.

Power of sale, we have the right to sell that property and apply the sale proceeds to help repay the amount owing. This security is given in consideration of the lender agreeing to advance to the borrower (and if the security is given by a guarantor, the lender agreeing, at the request of the guarantor to advance to the borrower) the total advances and any further advances.

7. Electronic disclosure: If an email address is inserted against your name in this agreement then you consent to any disclosure and our communications generally being made in an electronic form by sending an email to your email address.
8. You appoint the lender your attorney: You are also giving to the lender a power of attorney that the lender can use to do things that you should do under this agreement and generally protect its interest under this agreement. This power of attorney is granted in consideration of the lender agreeing to advance to the borrower (and if the power is granted by a guarantor, the lender agreeing, at the request of the guarantor to advance to the borrower) the total advances and any further advances.
9. Acknowledgement of receipt: by signing this agreement you confirm to us that you have been given a copy of this agreement including the general terms and (if not included in the general terms) the Schedule of Standard Fees and Charges – Consumer Credit.

The lender’s agreement to lend:

The lender agrees to lend to the borrower the amount shown as “total advances” in the initial disclosure.

If the borrower asks and the lender agrees, any future amount shown as a “further advance” in any change disclosure statement will be recorded by this loan agreement. The lender does not have to agree to any further advance.

Default interest charges and default fees

In the event of a default in payment and while the default continues you must pay the default interest charges.

Default interest is 20% per annum more than the annual interest rate charged on the amount in default from the time that you fall into financial default until you are no longer in financial default and calculated by multiplying the amount in default at the end of the day by the daily default interest rate. The daily default interest rate is calculated by dividing the annual default interest rate by 365. Default interest is charged to your account and immediately due and payable.

Default fees:

In the event of a breach of the contract or on the enforcement of the contract, the default fees set out in the Schedule of Fees and Charges – Consumer Credit are payable. This credit contract allows us to vary these default fees and charges.

In the case of our enforcement of the loan we will charge your account for all the costs and disbursements we incur from any court, any tribunal, our solicitor (on a solicitor client basis), any debt collection agency, any process server, any of our agents and for any dealings with other persons in respect of your loan or its enforcement. In addition, we will charge you the cost of doing anything which you have failed to do which we have done (refer to clause 3 of the Terms and Conditions).

FULL PREPAYMENT

If you pay the unpaid balance in full before the final payment is due or if the loan is repaid early due to the lender's enforcement action taken after you default (prepayment), you will have to pay our Early Repayment Fee to compensate us for the administrative costs relating to the prepayment

GUARANTEE

Read this first:

This guarantee is given in support of the attached loan contract. The terms and conditions set out below apply to each person named as a guarantor in the attached loan contract ("you"). We advise you to obtain legal advice before signing this guarantee. Please don't enter into this guarantee assuming you will never be called upon to make payments. The reason you are being asked to sign the guarantee is because the lender assumes that you may have to. Your liability to repay the lender is the same as if you were a borrower.

By signing the guarantee you:

- guarantee to the lender the payment of all of the guaranteed money and the performance of all the borrower's obligations;
- indemnify the lender against all costs losses and expenses that the lender may incur as a result of the guaranteed money not being repaid to the lender when it falls due;
- to the extent permitted by law, waive all defences which might be available to a guarantor or a surety; and
- grant security as set out in the "What could happen if you fail to meet your commitments" section of the disclosure statement and 19.1 of the "Terms and Conditions (v2102)" to the extent that you are the owner of the collateral and/or land; and
- agree that the guarantee is made up of the terms and conditions set out below and the provisions set out in other parts of the loan agreement, in the "Initial Disclosure" and the "Terms and Conditions (v2102)".

If there is more than one guarantor, each of you is liable for the full amount both individually and jointly with the others. This is called joint and several liability and means you could be asked to pay the full amount and not just a part of it. This applies even if another guarantor doesn't sign this guarantee.

1. You, the guarantor, are liable to the lender as if you were a principal debtor and the lender may require you to pay without first requiring the borrower to pay.
2. You must make payment immediately when the lender asks you.
3. You will not be released from your guarantee nor will your liability be reduced because:
 - you lack legal capacity;
 - of any other reason which would result in the loan agreement not being enforceable against or any moneys not being recoverable from the borrowers or (if there is more than one guarantor) another guarantor.
4. No waiver, giving of time, indulgence, compromise, failure or delay in exercising remedies, or other dealings by the lender with the borrowers or (if there are two or more guarantors) with any other guarantor will release you from any obligation or affect your liability to pay any sum.
5. Your rights of subrogation and indemnity against the borrower and (if there are two or more guarantors) contribution against any other guarantor will not arise until the lender has received payment in full of the guaranteed money and all the borrower's obligations under the loan agreement have been performed.
6. This guarantee is for the benefit of and may be enforced by any person for the time being entitled to payments of the guaranteed money and an assignment of the lender's rights under the loan agreement will not release you from liability.
7. Demand may be made and shall be deemed to have been made if in writing and served personally or posted by prepaid post to the last known address of the guarantor and such demand shall be deemed to have been delivered 4 working days after having been posted.
8. The lenders rights and powers and the obligations of the borrowers in the loan agreement are implied into this guarantee as if you were the borrower.

By signing this guarantee you ratify anything done by an attorney under this clause and further indemnify any person acting in reliance upon the power.

If the lender assigns the benefit of this agreement the assignee shall have the same rights and powers under this clause as does the lender and each person named as guarantor irrevocably appoints the assignee his attorney accordingly.

YOU ARE ADVISED TO OBTAIN INDEPENDENT LEGAL ADVICE BEFORE SIGNING THIS GUARANTEE

Finding your way around the small print.

Your loan agreement with us is made up of several documents. The document that you sign containing your agreements and acknowledgements (we call this the Loan Details); this document containing the terms and condition that apply to all loans (we call this the General Terms); and, if section E below is not included or is deleted and you are given a document entitled "Schedule of Standard Fees and Charges – Consumer Credit", then that document is deemed to be part of your loan agreement with us.

If you are a guarantor and not the borrower – the same documents contain your guarantee.

To help you find your way around this document we have divided it into sections. Some clauses and some sections may not apply to your specific loan. For example, if the Loan Details that you signed indicate that your loan is secured only over personal property, the section in the general terms applicable to mortgages over land is not relevant to that loan.

If you are a guarantor, the section headed Guarantee Terms applies to you. You should also read and understand all other sections because you are guaranteeing that the borrower will comply with the terms in these sections.

Some words that are used in the agreement have a special meaning. These are set out in the Dictionary in clause 28 of Section C at the end of this document.

It's important to us that you understand the nature and extent of your obligations to us when we lend money to you. It's tempting to overlook the small print but we encourage you not to. If you have any concerns or do not understand any of these terms or if you feel you are being pressured into signing the Loan Details, then you should obtain legal advice before you sign.

RIGHT TO CANCEL

You are entitled to cancel the consumer credit contract by giving notice to the creditor.

Time limits for cancellation

- If the disclosure documents are handed to you directly you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 5 working days after you receive the documents.
- If the disclosure documents are sent to you by electronic means (for example, email) you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 7 working days after the electronic communication is sent.
- If the documents are mailed to you, you must give the notice within 9 working days after they were posted.

Saturdays, Sundays, and national public holidays are not counted as working days.

How to Cancel

To cancel, you must give the creditor written notice that you intend to cancel the contract by-

- giving notice to the creditor or an employee or agent of the creditor; or
- posting the notice to the creditor or an agent of the creditor; or
- emailing the notice to the creditor's email address (if specified on the front of this disclosure statement).

You must also, within the same time, return to the creditor any advance and any other property received by you under the contract.

What you may have to pay if you cancel

If you cancel the contract, the creditor can charge you the amount of any reasonable expenses the creditor had to pay in connection with the contract and its cancellation (including legal fees and fees for credit reports, etc.). If you cancel the contract the creditor can also charge you interest for the period from the day you received the advance until the day you repay the advance.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU SUFFER UNFORSEEN HARDSHIP

If you are unable to reasonably keep up your payments or other obligations because of illness, injury, loss of employment, the end of a relationship, or other reasonable cause, you may be able to apply to the creditor for a hardship variation.

To apply for a hardship variation, you need to:

- a) make an application in writing; and
- b) explain your reason(s) for the application; and
- c) request one of the following:
 - an extension of the term of the contract (which will reduce the amount of each payment due under the contract); or
 - a postponement of the dates on which the payments are due under the contract (specify the period for which you want this to apply); or
 - both of the above; and
- d) Give the application to the creditor.

Do this as soon as possible. If you leave it too long, the creditor may not have to consider your application.

Section A. - Loan Terms

This section applies to all Consumer Credit Contracts.

1. Advances, repayment of advances and interest

- 1.1 You must repay by instalments, the total of all advances made in accordance with this agreement (and if we agree to make them, any further advances) together with interest at the times and in the amounts set out in a disclosure statement. You will find the initial disclosure statement in the Loan Details.
- 1.2 Every payment must be for the full amount. You cannot make any deductions or pay a lesser amount because you want to set the payment off against an amount you claim we owe you.
- 1.3 If any amount is payable under this agreement and no time is specified as the time for payment then that amount is payable immediately without the need for demand.
- 1.4 If we obtain judgment for any amount owing to us, you remain liable to pay us interest at the then applicable interest rate (including any default interest rate) from the date of judgment until the date of payment of the sum awarded by the judgement.
- 1.5 Multi-drawdown loan: If you have a multi-drawdown loan then after the initial advance, you may request us to advance all or part of the subsequent advances on the following terms:
 - a) unless otherwise permitted at our discretion, you can make up to four (4) drawing requests for a subsequent advance;
 - b) each drawing request must be for at least $5,000.00;
 - c) the total of all requests must be no more than the subsequent advance amount in the Loan Details;
 - d) the drawing requests must be made within 12 months of the date of this agreement;
 - e) each drawing request must be made in writing, which may be sent in the form of an email, and made by any of:
 - the authorised requestor(s) following the terms of the appointment in the Loan Drawing Authority; or
 - the borrower (where there is only one borrower); or
 - all the borrowers together (where there is two or more borrowers); and
 - f) we will consider each request to decide, in our discretion, whether to approve the subsequent advance or not. Our decision is final, and we are not required to justify our reasons if we decline a subsequent advance under this agreement.

2. Payment of fees

- 2.1 You must pay us the full amount of all credit fees and charges when they become due.
- 2.2 What we say about payments in clause 1.2 above also applies to payments of credit fees and charges.
- 2.3 Our credit fees and charges are set out in our Schedule of Standard Fees and Charges – Consumer Credit, which forms part of this agreement.

3. Payment of default fees and other costs

- 3.1 You must also pay us when we ask you, the following amounts:
 - a) default interest and default fees as set out in a disclosure statement;
 - b) all costs and expenses we incur relating to or in connection with this agreement including:
 - the preparation, signing, registration, administration, variation, release, consent relating to any security agreement, mortgage, security, caveat that we are entitled to take as security under this agreement;
 - any act or attempted act to exercise or enforce or protect any right or remedy we have under this agreement or any security;
 - any court proceedings;
 - any transfer of any security interest to or from us;
 - any dispute with you or a guarantor;
 - anything that we do which you should have done, either under our general rights as a secured lender or under the power of attorney that you have given us or under any security.

- 3.2 You agree that our costs and expenses may be calculated and paid on a full indemnity basis and are payable as liquidated damages to compensate us for loss.

- 3.3 Nothing that we do will waive our rights to require you to pay the default fees, default costs and other costs and expenses set out in this clause 3 so even if we don't ask you for payment when the costs are incurred, we can still ask you for payment at any later date.

4. Making payments

- 4.1 Unless we agree otherwise, all payments must be made by way of direct debit authority on your bank account or by way of an automatic payment authority on your bank account.
- 4.2 If any payment or debit from your bank account is reversed or dishonoured, you must make that payment immediately in cash. Any payment by cheque is not deemed to have been made until that cheque has been cleared.
- 4.3 If you make a payment to us on the condition that it is in full satisfaction of a debt, we are not bound by that statement unless we have agreed to the condition in writing before you make the payment. This means that we can bank the payment, apply it to the debt and you will still owe us the balance of the debt despite your condition.

5. Your right to prepay in full

- 5.1 You may prepay the outstanding balance in full at any time before it is due.
- 5.2 If you prepay in full, you may also have to pay our Early Repayment Fee which is for our administrative costs arising from the full prepayment or a charge equal to our average administrative costs on a full prepayment.
- 5.3 If you prepay in full, you will also need to pay any legal and other third party costs incurred in providing a discharge or release of any security held. The amount of the legal and third party costs is not ascertainable on the Statement Date.
- 5.4 If the loan is repaid in full or in part early due to the lender's enforcement action taken after you default you may also have to pay the fees specified in clauses 5.2 and 5.3.
- 5.5 Except in accordance with clause 5.6, we are not obliged to accept any partial prepayment but if we do, we reserve the right to charge an Early Repayment Fee.
- 5.6 If you have a multi-drawdown loan, you may make a partial prepayment to the loan at any time. We will not charge you an Early Repayment Fee if you make a partial prepayment to the loan.

6. Other things we can do relating to payments

- 6.1 If you are in default, we can apply any payment we receive from you in any way that we determine. This means we can apply it to fees and charges rather than an instalment and if several instalments are overdue, we can apply it to whichever instalment we choose.
- 6.2 If we choose, we can capitalise any overdue payment. This means that we can add the unpaid amount to the outstanding balance. We can also choose to extend the term and change one or all payment amounts. However, this is entirely at our option and you cannot force us to do this.
- 6.3 If you have a claim against us, we may set off your claim against any debt that you owe us.
- 6.4 If we receive any money following the sale of land, we may apply that money to reduce any debt that you owe us in whatever manner we decide – even if the debt due from you is not yet due and despite any claims you or any person claiming from you (for example, a subsequent charge holder) may make in respect of the money we have received.
- 6.5 If you make a payment to your loan account in excess of any scheduled payments, either:
 - a) because you ask us, and we agree, to retain an amount on settlement of the loan advance pending making the advance at a later date; or
 - b) you repay an amount early and you ask us, and we agree, that you may redraw at our discretion all or part of this amount, then interest will not accrue on that amount from the date it is received and credit to your account. Any agreement we make pursuant to this clause is at our discretion and may be made subject to such conditions as we may require.

If you have a multi-drawdown loan, the conditions of any redraw request are as follows:

- c) each redraw request must be for at least $5,000.00;
- d) the redraw requests must be made within 12 months of the date of this agreement;
- e) each drawing request must be made in writing, which may be sent by email, and made by:
 - the authorised requestor(s) following with the terms of the appointment in the Loan Drawing Authority; or
 - the borrower (where there is only one borrower); or
 - all the borrowers together (where there is two or more borrowers); and
- f) we will consider each redraw request to decide, in our discretion, whether to approve the request or not. Our decision is final, and we are not required to justify our reasons if we decline a request under this agreement.

7. Changes we can make

- 7.1 Unless a disclosure statement indicates otherwise and so long as we give you notice as required by the credit law, we can change:
 - a. the amount, frequency, time for payment or method of calculation of any payment;
 - b. the amount, frequency, time for payment or calculation of any fee or charge payable under the contract. We will only exercise our power to make a change if it is to protect or further our legitimate business interests and unless there are reasons specific to your loan that require otherwise, any change that we make will be made across all loans of a similar type to your loan; and
 - c. any other term and condition. We will only exercise our power to make a change if it is to protect or further our legitimate business interests and unless there are reasons specific to your loan that require otherwise, any change that we make will be made across all loans of a similar type to your loan.
- 7.2 If one or more of you requests and we agree, we may make a change to this agreement and we will give you notice as required by the credit law.
- 7.3 A change includes inserting a new term or condition in your loan or restructuring your loan.

8. Default and acceleration of repayment

- 8.1 If you default under this agreement, we may accelerate repayment of the loan. This means that we can give you notice requiring you to repay the outstanding balance to us even if the time for repayment has not yet arrived. Our right to accelerate is, however, subject to the terms of the Property Law Act 2007, section 119, in respect of loans secured by a mortgage of land and such other restrictions that are imposed by law (if any).
- 8.2 If you default under this agreement, we may cancel any undrawn subsequent advances. This means that you will not be able to request a drawdown of any part of the remaining subsequent advances as at the date of cancellation.
- 8.3 Default occurs under this agreement if:
 - a. you do not pay us an amount when it is due and payable;
 - b. you do something you have agreed not to do, or do not do something you have agreed to do either under this agreement;
 - c. you give us incorrect or misleading or deceptive information in connection with this agreement;
 - d. you have acted fraudulently in respect of this agreement;
 - e. any of the events set out in paragraphs a., b., c., or d. occur under any other agreement you have with us or under any security that you have given or agreed to give to us and whether or not you are a borrower or a guarantor;
 - f. an insolvency event happens; or
 - g. you default under any other agreement to any other person and that person has the right to accelerate any payments or exercise any rights over any personal or real property of any borrower or guarantor; or
 - h. any of the above events happens to a guarantor and for the purposes of this clause, "this agreement" includes each guarantee given in connection with this agreement.

9 Further Advances

- 9.1 If you ask us to make further advances to you and we agree, then those further advances:
 - a. are governed by this agreement and these terms and conditions;
 - b. are secured to us by each security interest and mortgage that you give us;
 - c. and the details regarding repayment of those further advances will be set out in a change disclosure statement.
- 9.2 If you have applied to us in writing for a further advance then you agree that the application signed by you, this agreement and change disclosure statement to be given to you will be sufficient to record your obligation to repay the further advances without the need for any further documentation.
- 9.3 If there is a guarantor, then any application for a further advance must be consented to by each guarantor. When consenting to the application each guarantor will be acknowledging that the guarantee applies to the further advance.
- 9.4 Just because we provide for further advances doesn't mean that we must make them if you apply for one. We have the right not to approve any further advance or to make any further advance on such additional terms and conditions as we think fit.

10 Change Disclosure

 - as a result, we are unable to recover the limited amount from the limited liability trustee
